Programme

Christopher will introduce this evening's programme as it unfolds, but as well as music by Sir Patrick Moore CBE, the performance will include The Clog Dance by Herold, plus pieces by Saint-Saëns, Barry Gray and John Williams.

Meet the Artists

Christopher Beaumont, Xylophone, Glockenspiel & Percussion

Born into a family of professional musicians, Christopher Beaumont started playing piano at the age of six, having lessons with the late, well-known Muriel Jones. He showed signs of a musical ear early on - copying sounds that he heard to their accurate pitch - despite not speaking until late age three.

Moving forward, an interest in Science and Astronomy developed, inspired by the work of Sir Patrick Moore CBE (BBC TV The Sky at Night). Chris wrote to Patrick and he replied with an invitation to meet - this started a friendship of over seven years. Chris discovered, by sheer luck, a recording of Patrick playing the Xylophone, as well as some of his other music. He wrote a second letter to ask about the fascinating sound and another invite came. After the visit, Patrick lent him his small 2.2 Octave Xylophone that he had when he was young. Chris successfully taught himself by ear the tunes he had heard, and then other pieces by Patrick which were discovered at further visits.

At the same time, Chris started learning other composer's pieces by ear and began to teach himself how to arrange. He took various music courses at two sixth-form colleges to enhance the basics he had learnt at his piano lessons. This taught Chris how to input sheet music onto a computer and listen to it, allowing him to convert what he heard to score. Chris did his first professional performance in July 2011. He gave a concert at Selsey Town Hall in 2012 which Patrick attended. Patrick would sadly pass away in the December of 2012, and Chris was given his collection of sheet music (Archive) in 2013, overseen by Dr Brian May CBE, known to the world as the guitarist from 'Queen'. Chris has been slowly restoring this Archive ever since.

His long term aims and interests are to perform the music countrywide, to restore the arrangements for Orchestra/Ensembles - and maybe even publish and record them all - to try and honour Patrick. Chris also has Sir Patrick's Concert Xylophone and Glockenspiel which he has partially restored, the Xylophone being purchased at Auction in Chichester. He has made two sets of recordings which feature Patrick's Music being performed on these instruments.

So far, Chris has taken some of Patrick's pieces to events in Torquay, Chelmsford, Hastings, Portsmouth, Bognor Regis, Wandsworth, Lewes, Felixstowe, Petersfield, Woking, Lymington, Rochester, Gerrards Cross, Stansted House, Emsworth, Maidstone and now Bosham.

Andrew Beaumont, Piano

Andrew Beaumont was born in West Yorkshire in 1947. His life in Music started out as a Drummer, playing in Bands in his local area whilst working for the Electricity Board and in Accounting.

Later he turned to Music full time, playing Keyboards in his own group 'FLAIR', booking the musicians himself. He bought a collection of original Band Arrangements of popular tunes ranging from wartime dance to popular 70's and 80's tunes which were otherwise destined for the skip. Subsequently, 'FLAIR' specialised itself as a function and dance band, but also as a backing band - appearing on cruise lines around the world as well as holiday venues around the UK, often accompanying famous visiting acts.

Andrew also worked as a musician agent alongside playing in 'FLAIR', booking musicians for cruise lines, touring acts and for various UK leisure destinations. Andrew met his wife - Singer and Dancer Carol - whilst on the ships and now often accompanies son Christopher for his performances.

Andrew's cousin is the Organist Howard Beaumont, who has regularly been featured on BBC Radio Two's "The Organist Entertains". Howard is fluent on both Pipe and Electronic Organs and is the resident Organist at The Spa in Scarborough.

Many thanks for supporting this evening's performance. We hope that you enjoyed your time at Holy Trinity Church and look forward to welcoming you again.

Music in Bosham goes for its annual summer break next month so there will be NO CONCERT ON SUNDAY 5th JULY. However, we will return for the second half of the 2026 season for our annual "Ben & Friends" Variety Concert, in support of Friends of Children in Romania on Sunday 2nd August. We look forward to seeing you then.
